

Houseparent's Prayer

Lord, help me to see every child in care from your viewpoint Lord, their potential laid bare.

Each one is your creation but tainted by sin each one needs your love Lord, to cleanse them again.

Some have been beaten, their scars there to see, some spirits are imprisoned; their hearts need to be freed.

Some have good parents, but financial woes

keep them from having enough food or clothes.

Some have no parents, they have no one to share, they need us to teach them of a Savior who cares.

Some are rebellious, injustice they see they need love and patience their spirits to free.

All are your children, they just do not know the riches of heaven you are waiting to show.

Our job is to teach them of your love and care and while we are at it, give food and clothes to wear.

Give us your patience Lord, our own will not do or else we'll grow weary, and quit before we are through.

*By: Lowell Dragoo
1/13/09*